INTERACTIVE DATA CORPORATION

1. Interactive Data Corporation and/or its affiliates (collectively, "IDC") are third-party data providers to certain components or aspects of the Services. Subscriber's use and/or distribution of IDC data ("Data") made available through the Services are subject to the following additional terms and conditions.
  2. To the extent Subscriber is licensing a non-data feed Service (for example, S&P's platform-based Services), Subscriber may not use Data in conjunction with Investment Accounting Activities. "Investment Accounting Activities" means back office accounting functions customary in the securities industry, including, but not limited to, trust accounting, fund accounting, brokerage activities, trading and settlement management and reporting, order execution, inventory control, NAV calculation and portfolio valuation for accounting purposes and general back office management of financial and operations functions.
  3. NEITHER IDC, ITS AFFILIATES NOR THEIR SUPPLIERS MAKE ANY WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS OR ANY OTHER MATTER AND SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY TO SUBSCRIBER OR ANY THIRD-PARTY FOR ANY ERRORS, OMISSIONS OR MALFUNCTIONS IN THE SERVICES. The Services should not be relied on and are not a substitute for the skill, judgment and experience of Subscriber, its management, employees, advisors and/or their clients in making investment and other business decisions. IDC disclaims all warranties and representations for the results obtained by the use of the Services by Subscriber or as to the performance thereof. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to be a waiver of any rights existing under applicable securities law.
  4. In the event Subscriber is licensed to use the Services to create derived data or derivative works from the Data contained within the Services ("Derived Data"), then such Derived Data shall (a) have their own numerical value separate and apart from the underlying Data points contained within the Services; (b) cannot be reverse-engineered back, disassembled or decompiled into the Data by reasonably foreseeable means; and (c) the creation of which and use of during the Term and post-termination (in the event post-termination rights are granted) are subject to the terms of Subscriber's license agreement with S&P for the Services.
  5. In the event Subscriber is licensed to use the Services for a Litigation Purpose, Subscriber agrees to fully defend, indemnify and hold harmless IDC from any liabilities or costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, arising out of use of the Data within the Services for the Litigation Purpose, including Vendor's compliance, response or objection to a subpoena or participation in any proceeding related to the Litigation Purpose as a non-party. A Litigation Purpose is any use of Data in any litigation, arbitration, mediation or similar purpose. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, under no circumstances may Subscriber use Data for a Litigation Purpose that involves price validations for evaluated pricing, without obtaining IDC's prior written consent.
  6. In the event that Subscriber at any time receives Data containing evaluations, rather than market quotations, for certain securities or certain other data related to such securities, the following provisions will apply: (a) evaluated securities are typically complicated financial instruments. There are many methodologies (including computer-based analytical modeling and individual security evaluations) available to generate approximations of the market value of such securities, and there is significant professional disagreement about which is best. No evaluation method, including those used by IDC and/or Interactive Data Pricing and Reference Data, may consistently generate approximations that correspond to actual "traded" prices of the instruments; (b) IDC's/Interactive Data Pricing and Reference Data's methodologies used to provide the pricing portion of certain Data may rely on evaluations; however, Subscriber acknowledges that there may be errors or defects in IDC's/Interactive Data Pricing and Reference Data's software, databases, or methodologies that may cause resultant evaluations to be inappropriate for use in certain applications; and (c) Subscriber must decide on the appropriateness of use of evaluations and other pricing data provided via the Service in Subscriber's applications, regardless of any efforts made by IDC/Interactive Data Pricing and Reference Data in this respect. Subscriber shall indemnify and hold Interactive Data Pricing and Reference Data completely harmless in the event that errors, defects, or inappropriate evaluations are made available via the Service or the Data.

7. Subscriber shall indemnify IDC and its third-party suppliers against and hold them harmless from any and all losses, damages, liability, costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, arising from any claim or demand against IDC or their third-party suppliers brought by a third-party arising out of or related to use of the Data, except that the foregoing indemnity obligation shall not apply in the case of claims arising out of IDC's or its third-party suppliers' infringement of a copyright, database right, trademark, or patent provided Subscriber is in compliance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement and the applicable Attachment(s). With respect to Subscribers that are governmental entities, agencies or academic institutions, the foregoing indemnity requirement shall not apply if compliance would violate (a) a statute or regulation applicable to Subscriber, or (b) a bylaw or equivalent governing instrument of Subscriber in existence at the time the Subscriber enters into the Attachment that incorporates this Schedule.

8. Subscriber agrees that IDC may enforce its rights against Subscriber as an intended third-party beneficiary of the Agreement, even though IDC is not a party to the Agreement.

9. For existing IDC clients, the following shall apply: Subscriber shall not cancel or fail to renew delivery of data directly from Interactive Data (the "IDC Data") with the intention of replacing such data, and so replace such data, with the data provided to Subscriber by S&P hereunder. If Subscriber breaches the immediately preceding sentence, S&P shall have the right to terminate delivery of such data on thirty (30) days' notice. To avoid such termination, Subscriber may pay to S&P an amount equal to 100% of the fees paid by Subscriber for the canceled services of Interactive Data during the immediately preceding twelve (12) month period, or if Subscriber was a client of IDC's for less than twelve (12) months, an amount equal to the fees actually paid by such Subscriber as annualized. Such payment, if any, shall be made within twenty (20) days of notice of S&P intention to terminate delivery of such data. Notwithstanding the foregoing, S&P shall not terminate the delivery of such data to the extent Subscriber's termination of delivery of IDC Data directly from IDC has not occurred within forty-five (45) days of the Commencement Date of the relevant Pricing Schedule and Subscriber certifies that it has not cancelled or failed to renew its delivery of IDC Data from IDC with the intention of replacing such data with the data provided to Subscriber by S&P hereunder.

Moody's Corporation (MCO) and its wholly owned credit rating agency subsidiary, Moody's Investors Service (MIS) also maintain policies and procedures to address the independence of MIS's ratings and rating processes. Information regarding certain affiliations that may exist between directors of MCO and rated entities, and between entities who hold ratings from MIS and have also publicly reported to the SEC an ownership interest in MCO of more than 5%, is posted annually on Moody's website at www.moodys.com under the heading "Shareholder Relations" Corporate Governance- Director and Shareholder Affiliation Policy.

4. The terms and conditions set forth in this Section are the result of various regulatory and/or legal requirements relating to usage of the Services. #### S&P GLOBAL RATINGS

1. Subscriber agrees and acknowledges that the S&P Ratings and S&P Ratings Reports (together, "S&P Ratings") are and shall remain the valuable intellectual property owned by, or licensed to, S&P Global Ratings and/or its affiliates, and that no proprietary rights are being transferred to Subscriber in such materials or in any of the information contained therein.

Subscriber agrees that it shall not publish or distribute in any medium the S&P Ratings or any information contained therein or summaries or subsets thereof to any person or entity except as may be permitted in a separate subscription or distribution agreement between Subscriber and S&P; notwithstanding the foregoing, Subscriber may exercise the distribution rights (if any) granted with respect to S&P data generally under the agreement governing the Services providing Subscriber with access to S&P Ratings. Subscriber further agrees that the use of information from the Services is not intended to serve in any way as a substitute for a license and/or service directly from S&P. Subscriber shall not use or permit anyone to use the information or software provided through the Services for any unlawful or unauthorized purpose.

2. In the event that S&P provides Subscriber with the ability to download limited portions of the S&P Ratings information from the Services, Subscriber agrees that, unless it has a direct license agreement with S&P that permits otherwise: (a) S&P Ratings data and information obtained from the Services may not be centrally managed or stored in a centralized or interdepartmental database management system utilizing features, such as indexes, for dynamic report building; (b) Subscriber may not network S&P Ratings data and information obtained from the Services; and, (c) the download functionality in connection with information from the Services shall only be used as a convenience in connection with the Services and not as a substitute for a direct agreement and/or S&P Ratings service directly from S&P. For avoidance of doubt and by way of example, download functionality may not be used to populate databases not connected with the Services.

3. Any use of S&P Ratings by Subscriber outside of the terms of this Agreement (and the agreement governing the Services providing Subscriber with access to S&P Ratings) requires a license from S&P, along with an associated fee based on usage. Subscriber agrees that misappropriation or misuse of such materials may cause serious damage to S&P, and that in such event money damages may not constitute sufficient compensation to S&P; consequently, Subscriber agrees that in the event of any misappropriation or misuse, S&P shall have the right to obtain injunctive relief in addition to any other legal or financial remedies to which S&P may be entitled.

4. Country Conditions. The terms and conditions set forth in this Section (the “Country Conditions”) are the result of various regulatory and/or legal requirements relating to usage of the Services. Subscriber’s use of the Services in the specified jurisdictions is subject to these Country Conditions. This Section may be amended by S&P at any time upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Subscriber.

4.1. Australia. To the extent that S&P Global Ratings’ credit ratings (the “Ratings”) are included as part of the Services, S&P Global Ratings Australia Pty Ltd. SPA expressly agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Attachment to the extent it applies to the provision of the Ratings. Subscriber accepts and acknowledges that SPA’s provision of the Ratings as part of the Services to Subscriber is based on, and conditional on, the veracity and accuracy of Subscriber’s representation that it is a “Wholesale Client” (as such is defined in Chapter 7 of the Corporations Act of 2001 (Australia)). In addition, Subscriber acknowledges that Ratings and/or related research licensed to Subscriber pursuant to the terms of this Attachment, are not intended for, and should not be distributed to, any person other than a Wholesale Client (to the extent such distribution is permitted by this Attachment). In furtherance of the foregoing, Subscriber undertakes that (a) it will not pass on any Rating and/or related research to a party who is not a Wholesale Client and (b) that Subscriber will obtain the same undertaking from its own Wholesale Clients (to the extent such distribution is permitted by this Attachment). S&P represents that it is authorized to bind SPA to the terms and conditions set forth in this Attachment to the extent such terms and conditions pertain to the provision of Ratings.

5. All countries located in Europe, the Middle East or Africa (“EMEA”). In the event Subscriber disseminates the Ratings to, or uses Ratings in, any country located in EMEA, Subscriber further acknowledges and agrees to the following: the Ratings shall not in any circumstances be used by Subscriber where, as part of an effort to sell securities to Retail Investors (as defined below), Subscriber uses the Ratings: (a) to create a type of recommendation, (b) to create its own interpretation of the Ratings or (c) in some other form of “risk classification”. For the purposes of this Attachment, “Retail Investor” shall mean an individual investor who buys and sells securities or other financial products for his/her personal account, and not for another company, individual or organization.
